

Mental Health in the Workplace

A full day workshop
for managers & leaders!

Join us for this one day workshop on mental health in the workplace...

The veterinary practice environment can be a minefield of mental health hazards. Challenges include long hours, difficult clients, vicarious trauma and handling interpersonal issues. Join Rosie Overfield for an evidence-based practical workshop to build your skills and strategies for developing a mentally-healthy practice.

This one day workshop will help you to:

- Understand the WHS legislation as it relates to mental health hazards and work related stress
- Develop a mentally-healthy workplace strategy and program
- Act quickly to support and manage mental health problems
- Draw upon mental health first aid and HR principles to handle mental health conversations

All participants will receive a kit that includes a 12 month workplace wellness plan, mental health first aid resources and a practical guide for managing mental health at work.
